OUR VISITORS

Those who watched the corresponding game last season will heartily endorse the warm words of welcome to St. Luke's College on their visit to Kingsholm this evening.

It was on Wednesday evening, November 29th, last year, that the students from Exeter taught Gloucester some sharp lessons and won a spectacular floodlit match by 22 points to 6 ; Nick Foice and Gary White scoring the Cherry and Whites' unconverted tries. Many will recall that Gloucester spent long periods in St. Lukes' territory in the second half ; but they blundered from time to time and the 'College' pounced on those errors to score several superb tries. It was champagne rigger and we look forward to a repeat performance this evening - from both sides, we hope !

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

The first monthly draw in the new "200 Club" competition will take place in the Social Club on Friday evening at 9 o'clock, when the winner will receive £25. Apart from the monthly prize of £25, there is a car to be won at the end of the season. There are still a number of vacancies in the competition for members. Why not ask any committeeman for details and join in time to win the next month's prize of £25 ?

Supporters are reminded that British Railways will be running the usual excursion train direct to Twickenham for the 'Varsity match on Tuesday week, December 10th. The fare is 30/- return; further details may be obtained from the office at Eastgate Station.

For the Aberavon match last Saturday week the second lucky programme number prize of two dozen cans of Watney's brown ale, was inadvertently overlooked. The omission will be rectified this evening, when there will be two lucky programme prizes - the usual £5 and the Watney's beer as second prize.

The lucky programme winner for the Aberavon game, incidentally, was No. 817, held by Mr. F. Weaver, 37 Henry Road, Gloucester.

Next Saturday, November 30th, Gloucester meet Oxford University at Iffley Road, Oxford, and a coach will be going from Kingsholm at 12-30 p.m., fare 10/-. Supporters wishing to go and who have already booked seats are asked to apply to Jim Holder in the Social Club.
