OUR VISITORS

Top-class rugger fare is promised us this afternoon as we extend a cordial welcome to Cambridge University who, unfortunately only visit Kingsholm once every two years.

The Light Blues' last visit to Kingsholm, on Sat., Jan. 28th, 1967, ended in a narrow win for Gloucester by 8 points to 6. In that game our present skipper, Dick Smith, suffered a leg injury in the first half, while David Ainge was off for 15 minutes with facial injuries. Terry Hopson scored Gloucester's try, Ainge making the conversion and adding a penalty goal.

Last season the University, who included Charlie Hannaford in their pack, gained revenge over Gloucester when they won at Grange Road by 9 points to 3 on Wednesday, November 15th. Nick Foice scored an unconverted try late in the game for the Cherry and Whites.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

There is better news of the injured players in the club. Nigel Jackson resumed work this week, though it is not yet known how long it will be before he is back in action, while Jim Jarrett appears to be fighting fit again. Roy Morris's return is delayed longer than expected, but Colin Teague's dorsal ailments appear to be disappearing and he should soon be "on parade".

The "snowball" prize is still building up at the weekly Bingo sessions, which continue in the Social Club on Monday evening (8 p.m. prompt). Why not come along and join the circle - and bring the ladies ?

Next Saturday, February 1st, there is another attractive fixture at Kingsholm, with neighbouring Bristol as our visitors. Our friends from the south of the county are still smarting under the defeat Gloucester inflicted upon them at the Memorial Ground last September (and that amazing drop goal from a mark by Jim Jarrett !) and will be all out for revenge.
