OUR VISITORS

This evening we extend a warm welcome to the Wolfhounds, the powerful and well-known side of Internationals and County players, who are great "crowd pullers" wherever they play.

Their skills, artistry and flair for open rugger combine to ensure a spectacle of the game at its best, and we look forward to such a display this evening.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

It is three years since the Wolfhounds last visited Kingsholm, on Thursday evening, September 22nd, 1966. Then it was a great performance by their pack that laid the foundations of Gloucester's victory by 16 points to 8 over our popular visitors, who on that occasion included five Internationals in their ranks.

Ron Pitt, Gary White — skipper in that season — Dick Smith and John Groves scored Gloucester's tries, two of which were converted by David Ainge.

Members and supporters are reminded that the "200 Club" competition has started again. There is a cash prize to be won every month and the handsome award of a car or £500 at the end of the season.

Several supporters found it extremely remunerative last season. Why not join this evening? Messrs. Reg Collins, Bill Cale and Jim Haines are the "men in charge", but any committee man will readily give any details.

Next Saturday the lads "go abroad" when they make the sea crossing to Dublin to meet Bective Rangers. The next home match is on Saturday week, September 27th, when that great local "derby" brings Bristol to Kingsholm.
