OUR VISITORS

Were a popularity poll to be held among Gloucester supporters as to the clubs they most wished to watch, then vying for a top spot would be Moseley, our friends from the Midlands, whom we cordially welcome to Kingsholm this evening.

A team of many talents, Moseley invariably provide a feast of enjoyable, constructive rugger, and we look forward to such a game this evening.

KINGSHOLM KACKLE

It is perhaps ironic that last season, when Gloucester met Moseley at Kingsholm, on Friday evening, April 10th, 1970, the game, far from being the usual free-scoring affair, ended in a draw of three points each. Alan Brinn scored an unconverted try for Gloucester.

Last Saturday, giving a brilliant performance, Moseley ran riot at the Reddings against Headingley, whom they soundly thrashed by 37 points to nil, with their winger, Bob Hemmings, scoring four tries. This against a Headingley side which included England centre John Spencer and Scottish international Chris Rea !

Tickets for the match between the Western Counties and the touring Fijians at Kingsholm on Saturday, October 10th, are going like the proverbial hot cakes.

There are still ground tickets available, however, and it is stressed that applications for these must be made as soon as possible. They will be on sale at the office on the ground this evening before and after the match.

They may also be obtained from Gloucester R.F.C. secretary, Harold King, at his home - 126, Podsmead Road, Gloucester. This is not high-power sales talk ; the tickets really are in great demand, so if you have not already obtained yours, apply this evening or as soon as is convenient !

Another reminder ! The "200 Club" is going well again and anyone wishing to join for one of the monthly prizes should contact one of the committee members, or visit the Social Club on a Friday evening, when Messrs. Reg Collins and Bill Cale are in attendance.

Though perhaps disappointed over the general composition of the team, Kingsholm supporters will readily offer congratulations to young Ron Etheridge, the Gloucester full-back, on winning his place for Gloucestershire against Glamorgan at the Memorial Ground, Bristol, next Tuesday evening.

Ron, who was playing in local rugger for Saintbridge Former Pupils a year ago, has made rapid strides since joining the Cherry and Whites last November, and his honour is well deserved. A.R.

SATURDAY, September 19th at Kingsholm.

Kick-off 3.15 p.m.
