

THE CITIZEN

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1950

It was a side weakened by county calls which Gloucester took to Clifton this afternoon. The home club, too, were not at full strength, their skipper, McWatters, having to cry off because of injury.

CLIFTON: J. C. Issett; B. Kemp, J. Rees, B. Dangerfield, D. Gegg; R. A. Overton, R. A. M. Whyte; J. R. Duncan, J. Langdon, J. Fowler, R. A. Garrick (capt.), H. W. Knight, H. F. Bolton, J. Young, C. Rhodes.

GLOUCESTER: T. Halls; S. Troughton, B. Williams, M. Baker, E. Turner; J. Teakle, D. Humphris; T. Day (capt.), R. Chamberlayne, R. Parry, I. Jones, I. Ryder, B. Ash, R. Hodge, V. Ibbotson.

The game opened evenly but Gloucester were soon on the attack when scrum-half Humphris got his threes away.

Clifton missed a good opportunity when faulty handling ended a good movement.

Great pressure was put on the Clifton line but Whyte came to the rescue when he won the touch down.

Determined tackling by Clifton prevented Gloucester from scoring.

Gloucester had a chance to take the lead with a penalty just outside the twenty five, but M. Baker was wide with the kick. G. Teakle ran through but the final pass went astray.

Roger Whyte broke through for Clifton but was pulled down by full back.
