

THE CITIZEN

SATURDAY, JANUARY 5, 1952

GLOUCESTER, STROUD WIN IN LONDON

In the last minute of their game against London Scottish at Richmond to-day, Gloucester gained a thrilling victory.

After a pointless first half, the Scots went ahead when Bruce Lockhart dropped a goal.

Shortly before the end Gloucester made a supreme effort, Taylor ran in a fine movement in which seven players took part and HODGE crossed for a try wide out.

Trevor Halls converted to give Gloucester a 5 pts. -3 win.

Stroud also gained a fine win by 8 pts.-5 over London Hospital at Hale End to-day.

SOLOMONS and BAIMBRIDE scored tries, DYER converting one.