

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, APRIL 4, 1952

HARLEQUINS BRING STRONG FIFTEEN

Harlequins are bringing a powerful side to meet Gloucester at Kingsholm tomorrow (3.15).

The team announced includes several well-known players, including the international wing-forward Eric Horsfall.

Gloucester have been obliged to make one change – Roy Parry coming into the pack in place of George Hastings, who has a chill.

The club's reserve fullback, Trevor Halls – who is again deputising for Bill Hook – turned out during the week for the South-Western Counties in company with Hudson and Hodge and kicked two goals.

Last season Harlequins held Gloucester to a draw at Kingsholm, each side scoring a try.

The visitors' team for to-morrow's game will be : R. M. Bartlett; C. G. Woodruff, W. P. C. Davies, H. C. Forbes, D. A. Barker; N. T. Fryer, M. L. Grant; P. J. Fuller, G. J. Weston, M. B. Devine, E. A. J. Ferguson, F. J. O'Connor, E. L. Horsfall, D. K. Brookes (capt.), J. M. Foreman.