7 GLO'STER MEN IN COUNTY XV

The number of Gloucester players in the county rugby team has been increased to seven for next Saturday's championship match against Cornwall at Kingsholm.

Half-backs Vivian Davies and Bill Cartmell have been recalled, and Glyn Davies, who played outside-half against Somerset moves into the centre.

Gloucester skipper Bob Hodge, who had to withdraw from the Devon match with an injured thigh muscle, replaces Doug. Pratten as lock forward.

From Gloucestershire's point of view the game will have no bearing on the championship. Having lost their first two matches they are now out of the running.
