WELSH CAPS ON VIEW AT KINGSHOLM

Lydney forward and former Gloucester captain Jack Watkins is included in the British Police team to meet the R.A.F. at Kingsholm tomorrow (2.30). The Police will have a strong side in the field including two Welsh internationals, Dai Davies, the hooker, and W. E. Tamplin, one of the best kickers in the game to-day. The Air Force are also well represented and the game should be close and interesting.

Ald. G. A. H. Matthews, Mayor of Gloucester, is due to kick off, and the game will be watched by high-ranking Police and Air Force officers.
