

THE CITIZEN

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1953

L. BLUES IN SPECIAL TRAINING FOR VISIT TO KINGSHOLM

Cambridge University – due to play Gloucester RFC at Kingsholm on Saturday (3.0), in aid of the Cathedral Fabric Fund – are entering wholeheartedly into the spirit of the appeal.

In a letter to the Rev. H. M. Hughes, chairman of Gloucester RFC committee, the Cambridge playing hon. secretary (I. D. S. Beer) expresses the hope that the visit of the Light Blues will help to draw a large crowd and that the appeal will be a great success.

"All we have to do is to play some good rugger, and for this, we are training specially," continues the writer.

"The Varsity side are all most keen to have this opportunity to play at Gloucester and we look forward to giving your club a really good game and, we hope, several anxious moments."

MACEWEN TO HOOK

The Fifteen named by Cambridge is a strong one, containing seven Blues.

On the wing they will have Scottish international K. J. Dalgleish, and at outside-half K. Davies, who is considered a Welsh international prospect.

The pack will include England Trialist P. H. Ryan as lock forward and Clifton and Gloucestershire hooker, R. MacEwen.

Cambridge University: N. Estcourt; K. J. Dalgleish, T. McClung, H. Cormack, J. Roberts; K. Davies, T. C. Pearson; A. L. Canham, R. MacEwen, M. J. O. Massey, B. W. H. Goodman, P. J. F. Wheeler, I. D. S. Beer, P. H. Ryan, D. Bland.

JC