GLO'STER RECALL HALLS

On the strength of the good displays he has recently given for Gloucester United, full-back Trevor Halls will be back in Gloucester's premier side when they meet Cambridge University in aid of the Cathedral Fund, at Kingsholm on Saturday.

Gloucester's threequarter line will again be at full strength, but outside-half Bill Cartmell is still unfit and Lewis Morgan retains his place.

Bob Hodge, Gloucester's skipper, is reserve for the Ireland v. England international in Dublin and Gordon Hudson comes into the pack as lock forward.

Gloucester: T. Halls; J. Taylor, H. Terrington (capt.), M. Baker, E. Turner; L. Morgan, J. Hobbs; R. Parry, C. Thomas, R. Stower, H. G. Wells, J. Gwilliam, P. Ford, G. Hudson, D. Ibbotson.

Because the first team are playing at home this week, Gloucester United have had to transfer their fixture with Bath United (3.0) to Fielding and Platt's ground at Llanthony.

They will have Bill Smith at full-back. The pack will include a new winging forward, D. Meadows – a recruit from Spartans.

Gloucester United: W. Smith; G. Bevan, R. Sutton, A. Baimbridge, C. Crabtree; D. Jones, W. Nield; A. Wadley, M. Burford, G. Hastings, B. Hudson, F. Steinhobel, D. Meadows, I. Jones (capt.), G. Counsell.
Reserves on ground: F. House, F. Daniels, R. Blair, L. Evans.
