

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1953

BLACKHEATH TO FIELD STRONG SIDE

No changes have been announced in the Gloucester team to oppose Blackheath at Kingsholm on Saturday (kick-off 3.15).

Bob Hodge received a knock in Tuesday's game and it is not yet known whether he will be fit.

The London side will include wing-forward N. Glyn Davies, who played for Barbarians at Easter, and was included in Rees Stephens' international XV. in the charity game at Neath in aid of the Neath YMCA Building Fund last night.

Blackheath: R. J. Jenkins; R. J. Garland-Skeeg, J. B. Williamson, G. T. Lewis, W. A. Grey; I. A. Simpson, H. Mustoe; K. Motley, J. G. Barnes, D. Blatch, H. B. Neely, B. G. Taylor, A. A. Dunn, D. M. Turner, and N. Glyn Davies.