

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1913

FOOTBALL

HOLIDAY MATCHES

GLOUCESTER v. OLD MERCHANT TAYLORS

At Kingsholm on Boxing Day (kick-off 2.30).

Gloucester. – C. Cook; F. Webb, A. Lewis, L. Hamblin, and W. Washbourn; J. Baker and A. Hall; G. Halford (capt.), S. Smart, N. Hayes, J. F. Lawson, A. Saunders, S. Millard, W. Parham, A. Cook, and J. Meadows (selected from).

J. G. Will has declined his place in the Scottish International trial on Saturday, which indicates that the Cambridge University player will be accompanying the Taylors on tour.

The Committee of the Gloucester F.C. have granted permission to the local Schools Football Union to make a collection on the ground at the Taylors match on behalf of their funds. In the recent cup fixture between the Gloucester and Stroud Boys the gate receipts, owing to the wretched weather, only amounted to 13s. 8d., and the officials of the Union feel confident enthusiasts will generously respond to their appeal to keep the boys' clubs going.

GLOUCESTER A v. LYDNEY ST. MARY'S.

At Lydney on Saturday.

Gloucester A. – A. Marmont; T. Powell, S. Sysum, A. Millington, and F. Bloxsome (capt.); A. Wotton and T. Burns; J. Harris, F. Ayliffe, W. Dovey, C. Mumford, L. Smith, J. H. Webb, Osborne, and Kingscote.

Reserves : Marshall, Williams, and Webb (St. Mark's), Meadows and Brookes (West End), Comley and Cromwell (Gordon League), and Gardner (Tredworth).

JC