The campaign was totally disrupted by the Coronavirus. As if that was not enough, Johan Ackermann, David Humphreys and Rory Teague left from the coaching and management side, to be replaced by George Skivington, Alex King and Dom Waldouck. The finishing position of seventh in the Premiership was a drop of four on the previous season. Over the whole campaign 68% of games were lost, which by a distance was the worst in the club's long history. On the bright side, Ollie Thorley was the Premiership's top try scorer with eleven, and Gloucester qualified for the Champions Cup.
