

GLOUCESTER JOURNAL

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1927

FOOTBALL

Gloucester, who defeated Stroud in a mid-week match by 8 points to nil, played their first game at Kingsholm on Saturday, when Lydney provided the opposition.

A keen game ended in a narrow victory for Gloucester by a penalty goal (kicked by Saxby, the new captain) to nil. On the run of play the City were lucky in gaining winning points.

To-day Northampton were visitors to Kingsholm.

JC