GLOUCESTER'S FIRST HOME DEFEAT

Gloucester suffered their first home defeat on Thursday, when Oxford University beat them by 3 tries (9 points) to nil.

The City had E. Stephens injured in the first half, and though he came back twice, he was of little help. Oxford proved overwhelmingly superior in the backs, and with accurate handling would have won by a more decisive margin. The home forwards played stubbornly, but the outsides lacked speed and cleverness.
