GLOUCESTER AND CITY ARE BOTH UNCHANGED

Both Gloucester and Gloucester City are away from home on Saturday – the Red and Whites at Leicester and City at Gravesend in a Southern League match.

Both hope to field unchanged sides.

The Gloucester team – they lost to Oxford University last Saturday by 27 points to 3 – is:

R. Sibery; R. Amos, R. Sutton, D. Perks, R. Blair; D. Jones, J. Hobbs; G. Hastings (capt.), C. Thomas, R. Parry, J. Varney, B. J. Green, P. Ford, R. Hodge, D. Ibbotson.

Reserve to travel: D. Smith.

Coach, Worcester-st. 10.45.

Kick-off is at 2.45.

Gloucester have always found the Tigers a difficult side to beat at Welford-rd., though two seasons ago the Red and Whites succeeded in recording a "double."

Last season a weakened Gloucester team were defeated 13pts.–8 at Leicester, but in the return encounter at Kingsholm Gloucester gained a runaway win by 19 points to nil.

This year the Red and Whites' former captain, John Taylor, is playing for the Tigers.

AT KINGSHOLM

Gloucester United, who meet Leicester "A" at Kingsholm on Saturday (3.0) will again have the assistance of Ernie Turner on the wing.

Henry Wells and Peter Hosea will be paired in the second row of the pack.

Gloucester United: R. Smart; E. Turner, D. Hill, D. Morgan, N. Crabtree; H. Terrington, P. Meadows; J. Herbert, M. Burford, D. Solomon, H. Wells, P. Hosea, G. Wilce, I. Jones (capt.), M. C. Jones.
