

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1955

STAR-STUDED R.A.F. PACK AT KINGSHOLM

Appearing tomorrow at Kingsholm (3.15) for the first time for five weeks, Gloucester's premier side will be facing a particularly strong R.A.F. team.

The visitors' pack includes two internationals, P. G. Yarranton and N. M. Munnock (Scotland), in addition to trialists and county players.

In the centre the airmen will have two Rugby League players – one of them, M. Sullivan, an international, while Gloucester's Roy Blair will be on the wing.

At scrum-half, the R.A.F. will be playing R. I. Shuttleworth, brother of the England international.

Team:

F/Lt. T. C. Patterson; Cpl. P. Hunt, AC M. Sullivan, AC V. Howard, S/AC R. Blair, AC G. Tregedon, P/O R. I. Shuttleworth; F/O A. M. Bain, F/Lt. N. M. Munnock, F/O G. Thorburn, F/Lt. P. G. Yarranton, L/AC J. Sewell, F/O P. S. Collingridge, F/O T. Bleasdale (capt.), F/O J. Collard.

No changes have been reported in the Red and Whites' team.

Last year the Air Force won at Kingsholm by 14 points to 6.