

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30, 1955

BLAIR-MORGAN PAIRING FOR STROUD TUSSLE

Lewis Morgan, who did so well in the centre against Newport, retains his place in that position for Gloucester's away match with Stroud tomorrow evening (5.30).

Roy Blair returns to the wing and is expected to play outside Morgan. With Cyril Thomas not available for this game Mervyn Burford comes in as hooker. Gloucester's skipper George Hastings is resting an injured shoulder and D. A. Jones is not free to play.

The team selected for tomorrow is:

B. Sibery; M. Baker, B. Field, L. Morgan, R. Blair; David Jones, J. Hobbs; R. Parry, M. Burford, D. Solomon, J. Varney, B. Green, P. Ford, R. Hodge, D. Ibbotson.

Reserves to travel: W. Nield, M. C. Jones, E. P. Lewis.

STROUD'S LINE-UP

Stroud have re-arranged their back division for the Gloucester game. Johnny Moore returns to fly-half to change places with Eric Williams and G. Harris replaces C. Bendall at right centre.

The referee will be Mr. S. Bolsen (Nottingham Society).

The selected Stroud team is:

A. Curtis; T. Tagg, G. Harris, E. Williams, D. R. Matthews; A. J. Moore, D. J. Flynn; D. Haines, J. Fowkes, K. Harper, C. Mauler, P. J. Marriott, A. Asher, B. C. Dainty (capt.), T. P. Shill.