TWO "CAPS" IN SWANSEA SIDE FOR KINGSHOLM

An additional attraction on Gloucester Rugby Club's fixture list – the re-arranged match with Swansea – takes place at Kingsholm this evening (5.45).

The Red and Whites are in the fortunate position for an evening match of being able to field one of their strongest sides.

The selected team is:

I. Sheen; R. Blair, R. Sutton, L. Morgan, M. Baker; David Jones, J. Hobbs; G. Hastings (capt.), C. Thomas, R. Parry, D. A. Jones, B. Green, P. Ford, R. Hodge, D. Ibbotson.

Reserves: D. Solomon, J. Varney, M. C. Jones.

Swansea include two internationals in wing threequarter Horace Phillips and wing forward R. C. C. Thomas, who captains the side.

Gloucester supporters will be pleased to welcome back to Kingsholm the Red and Whites' former scrum half Vivian Davies, who is turning out for Swansea.

Swansea: E. Prosser-Harris; D. H. Phillips, M. Morgan, R. Bolsh, G. Williams; Ray Jones or G. Tregedon, Vivian Davies; G. Lewis, T. Petherbridge, E. Burns, I. Hopkins, J. E. Jenkins, Peter Stone, J. Llewelly, R. C. C. Thomas (capt.).

Swansea last visited Gloucester on February 20, 1954, when they were beaten 8pts.–nil.
