

THE CITIZEN

THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1955

MICHAEL BAKER NOT AVAILABLE

New Brighton, one of Gloucester's two touring team opponents this holiday, will be making their first appearance at Kingsholm on Saturday, and, as far as can be established it will be the first occasion the two clubs have met.

The club, though little known in this part of the country, is counted among the attractive sides in its own area. It is the home side of J. P. Quinn, the English international.

That day[sic] Gloucester's opponents will be another northern club, but this time old rivals – Sale. They, too, have a great English player in Vic Evans, their hooker.

Michael Baker, who will be on tour with the Banks, will not be available during the holiday. Sheen, too, may not be available.

David Jones, who received an ankle injury on Monday, is back in the side.

Teams for Saturday and Monday will be selected from:

I. Sheen or B. Sibery; R. Blair, R. Sutton, L. Morgan, P. Lewis; D. Jones, J. Hobbs; R. Parry, C. Thomas, D. Solomons, D. A. Jones, J. Varney, P. Ford, R. Hodge, D. Ibbotson and B. J. Green.