

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1955

GLO'STER UP AGAINST HEFTY PACK

Gloucester Rugby Club will be facing the heaviest pack in Wales when they meet Ebbw Vale at Kingsholm tomorrow (3.15).

A sample of the size of the visitors' pack is Ben Edwards, a 1951 international and for several years one of the most prominent members of the Newport pack. An exceptionally hefty second row forward, Edwards is also a very powerful place kicker.

The Ebbw Vale team will be:

R. Davies; J. Pugh, G. Phillips, G. Jones, W. N. Long; A. Morris, J. Lawrence; C. Goldrick, A. Jackson, R. Cameron, B. Edwards, E. Finney, H. Matthews, T. Bourton, W. Morgan.

Up to today no changes had been reported in the Gloucester team.

Gloucester United's fixture with Hereford has been re-arranged for next Tuesday at Kingsholm, kick-off 6.30.