PERKS AND MORGAN IN CENTRE

Gloucester Rugby Club play their last match of the 1954-55 season on Saturday when they entertain Exeter at Kingsholm (3.15).

Doug. Perks is brought into the centre for this game and will be paired with Lewis Morgan, while the wing threequarter berths will be filled by Michael Baker and Roy Blair.

The Red and Whites revert to their regular half back combination of John Hobbs and David Jones, and the pack will be one of the strongest that the club can put out.

Gloucester: B. Sibery; M. Baker, D. Perks, L. Morgan, R. Blair; David Jones, J. Hobbs; G. Hastings, C. Thomas, R. Parry, D. A. Jones, B. Green, P. Ford, R. Hodge, D. Ibbotson.

Exeter's last visit was about 2½ years ago when the Red and Whites gained a 14pts.-8 victory. A year ago Gloucester beat the Devon club at Exeter by 13 points to 9.
