

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 1955

BRIAN FIELD COMES IN FOR MORGAN

Lewis Morgan, who was to have turned out in the centre for Gloucester in the club's last match of the season at Kingsholm tomorrow (3.15) will not now be free to play and his place is to be taken by Brian Field.

Exeter, who provide the opposition, have selected a good side. Numbered among their county players is John Starke, a strong-running wing threequarter.

The Devon club are a team who specialise in attractive, open rugby – win or lose – and the last match of the 1954-55 season should be an enjoyable one.

Exeter: A. D. Hunt; E. G. Hawkins, S. G. Brown, R. G. Grace, J. L. Starke; R. Pike, J. F. Ford; S. R. Sharpe, I. Loosemore, P. W. Soper, P. Mair, A. S. E. Lee, J. Hilton, A. J. Hurved, B. H. J. Tarr.