WEEKEND WIPE-OUT

The snow has wiped out sport this weekend with little action likely on the local or national scene.

Tomorrow's Ireland v. England rugby match in Dublin was called off this morning after five inches of snow fell overnight – the France v. Wales clash in Paris was called off on Wednesday.

Gloucester's trip to Wasps tomorrow was cancelled yesterday and players have been asked to report for a training session at RAF Innsworth at 11.30 am.
