

THE CITIZEN

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1964

BRISTOL'S TWO CHANGES

After romping to victory over Lydney by 58 points to three, Bristol make two changes for their home game with Gloucester at the Memorial Ground on Saturday.

Versatile 19-year-old Richard Wallace, fly-half against Swansea last week, returns at full-back, where skipper Peter Colston's stand-in, Alan Watson, is no longer available. In the pack Mike Pegler returns to the front row in place of Jan Szyszkiewicz. Mike Rogers keeps his place at fly-half in the absence of Richard Sharp, playing for Cornwall in a friendly against Lancashire, and John Blake, injured.

The Bristol team is:

R. Wallis; M. G. Ellery, D. J. Weeks, J. Glover, M. R. Collins;
M. W. Rodgers, D. J. Spratt; M. J. Pegler, J. D. Thorne, R. V. Grove,
D. E. Watt, D. W. Neate, M. A. Lawrence, D. S. Mann, G. G. White.
Reserve, to attend, A. Rogers.

Bristol United, at Gloucester, have a strong pack, but the back division is below strength. Tony Weaver, normally a wing forward, appears at centre threequarter, and Bill Ryan, St. Brendan's, comes in at outside half.

The team is:

J. S. Amor; R. V. Bridgeman, P. Hillard, A. J. Weaver, P. R. Mills;
W. Ryan, G. Bentley; J. Szyszkiewicz, J. E. Pullin, F. J. Williams,
J. D. Currie, L. Jenkins, L. Davies, P. Cowles, G. F. Redman.
Travelling reserve D. Brown.