

THE CITIZEN

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1964

HARLEQUINS STAND-OFF DOUBTFUL

Cock-a-hoop Harlequins, scorers of 177 points in six games, may be without stand-off Bob Read for Saturday's visit to Gloucester. He pulled a hamstring against Swansea and British Lion John Brown stands by to deputise.

Mike Jones returns to the second-row of the pack after injury and Vic Marriott switches to the middle of the back-row.

Team: R. B. Hillier; J. T. Cox, J. J. McPartlin, R. H. Lloyd, H. Eden; R. F. Read (or H. J. C. Brown), R. Lewis; G. C. Murray, J. Bazwigette, D. F. B. Wrench, C. M. Payne, J. M. Jones, N. Silk, V. R. Marriott, A. J. S. Todman.

JC