

THE CITIZEN

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1964

GLO'STER MAKE NO CHANGES

Gloucester field an unchanged team to meet Leicester at Kingsholm on Saturday (3 p.m.).

The side which beat Oxford University away last Saturday will be defending its unbeaten-at-home record against one of the toughest sides in first class Rugby.

Team: D. Rutherford; N. Foice, J. Bayliss, R. Pitt, R. Smith; D. Ainge, M. Booth (capt.); C. Milner, K. Taylor, B. Hudson, R. Long, A. Brinn, P. Ford, D. Owen, Dick Smith.

Reserves: T. Hopson, J. Vallender, R. Bassi, K. Baalham, P. Meadows.

FIXTURE MIX-UP

Gloucester United's fixture away against St. Paul's College, Cheltenham has been scratched because of a mix-up at Cheltenham.

Mr. D. A. Dawe, the Gloucester RFC's fixtures secretary told "The Citizen" today : "I wrote to St. Paul's in May as usual telling them that they were included in our fixture list. I heard nothing from them and assumed that the match was on. Now we know that they have a match on the same day (against Old Cheltonians) which they intend to play."