MORRIS, TEAGUE KEEP PLACES IN GLO'STER XV

Roy Morris and Mike Teague both hold their places in the Gloucester team to meet Cambridge University at Kingsholm on Saturday.

Morris, deputising for Bayliss in the centre last week keeps out his centre partner Ron Pitt, who plays for United. Bayliss returns after an injury lay-off.

The selectors were impressed with the second row pairing of Roy Long and Mike Teague and retain Teague instead of Alan Brinn who is reserve. M. Burton props instead of Brian Hudson who is also named as a reserve.

NEW SKIPPER LEADS THE UNITED

Don Rutherford returns to the full-back berth, occupied while he was playing for England last Saturday, by David Ainge.

Ainge's full-back services are retained by United who are led by new skipper Bob Timms.

The kick-off at Kingsholm is 2.45.
