

THE CITIZEN

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1965

GLOUCESTER VISITORS

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY REORGANISE

Experience and new blood are blended in the Cambridge University rugby team which plays Gloucester tomorrow.

Last week's match against Edinburgh University was the last game for several of the Cambridge side which played at Twickenham as they will not be returning next year.

The new captain, Mike Gibson plays for Ireland against France and misses his first game since his appointment. P. A. Anthony who played stand-off while Gibson had a broken wrist, will deputise.

There are three changes of special note. J. D. Jenkins moves to the second row to allow A. R. Cole to return to prop; R. B. Barker, who has shown up well at number eight for the L.X. club and M. A. Smith who has impressed in Scotland, make their debuts.

The team is:

M. J. Milliffe; M. A. Smith, P. H. Briggs, R. H. Lamb, R. S. Fleming; P. A. Anthony, A. J. Hamp-Ferguson; G. K. M. Webb, B. I. Rees, A. R. Cole, B. J. Morrison, J. D. Jenkins, M. Cole, R. B. Barker, P. A. Kitchin.

SMITH DOUBTFUL

Dick Smith, Gloucester far ranging open-side forward, has injured his knee and is doubtful.

Standing by in case the knee is still giving trouble tomorrow is David Kington from the United.

Gloucester: D. Rutherford; N. Foice, R. Morris, J. Bayliss, J. Groves;
J. Hopson, M. Booth (capt.); M. Burton, K. Taylor, J. Milner,
M. Teague, R. Long, P. Ford, D. Owen, R. Smith.

JC