

GLOUCESTERSHIRE CHRONICLE

DECEMBER 14, 1901

FOOTBALL

THE COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP

SOUTH-WESTERN DIVISION

GLOUCESTERSHIRE GROUP WINNERS

The Devon v. Somerset match, the last in the South-Western Division was played at Exeter, and, resulting in a win for Devon, leaves Gloucestershire group winners, irrespective of their appeal to the English Rugby Union to disallow Somerset's penalty goal, which made the result of their match with that county a draw. The complete table for the South-Western Group reads : –

	P.	W.	L.	D.	Pts.	Points
						For	Agst.
Gloucestershire	3	2	0	1	5	25	3
Devonshire	3	1	1	1	3	14	16
Somerset	3	1	1	1	3	8	14
Cornwall	3	0	2	1	1	3	11

Gloucestershire will now have to play Middlesex, and should they win, they will have to play Durham for the championship of England. The Middlesex match will probably be played at Gloucester in mid-week in January.
