

GLOUCESTERSHIRE CHRONICLE

DECEMBER 27, 1902

FOOTBALL

Gloucester were only weakly represented at Bristol on Saturday, while to make matters worse they lost the services of their best three-quarter, C. Smith, who had to retire at the interval through injuries. They, however, made a gallant fight, and were only beaten by 14 points to 5, Bristol's score including a dropped goal.

JC