GLOUCESTERSHIRE BEAT DEVON

At Bristol last Saturday, Gloucestershire beat Devon in their first championship game by 3 goals (1d.) (14 points) to 2 goals (1 p.) (8 points). McCanlis and Andrews scored the tries for Gloucester[sic], and Boughton converted both. Burland dropped the goal.

It was a hard, keen game, with Devon doing more of the attacking, but finishing badly. Ten Gloucester players were included in the winning team.

Somerset, who beat Cornwall by 16 points to 3, will meet Gloucestershire at Bath on Saturday next.
