FROM "W.B.'s" NOTEBOOK

GLOUCESTER 8 Pts., OLD MERCHANT TAYLORS 13 Pts.

The Old Merchant Taylors have a fine side this year, especially forward, and the Gloucester pack had to contest desperately to gain the upper hand over the Old Boys. The visitors' extra thrust, pace and team work behind gave them a well-deserved victory.

Gloucester had one man, Meadows, who did wonderfully well with individual efforts, but he received little support, and a game which would probably have been won easily with McCanlis at centre, was practically presented to the opposition.

But if the Gloucester crowd were disappointed with their side's display, they did not show it on the field, for the Taylors received an ovation at the end which delighted the team and supporters,
