PROGRAMME NOTES

TONIGHT'S visitors, Gloucester, are one of the strongest English teams and are seeking the double, having beaten us at Kingsholm by 15 pts. to 11 pts. Last Saturday they beat Plymouth Albion at Gloucester, 11 pts. to 6 pts. Gloucester have a good record against the "Vale", having won six and drawn one of the last nine games between the two clubs.

"Vale" supporters will be interested to know that former Gloucester and England full-back Don Rutherford is now the Coaching Organiser for the English Rugby Union.

WELCOME GLOUCESTER

OUR game against Penarth last Saturday was our first for three weeks and there is no doubt the lay-off affected our game, however, we came into our own in the second half and with a little more luck would have won much more convincingly. Arthur Lewis, in particular, gave a superb display, demonstrating that he is the most effective centre in Welsh rugby this season, and showed how misguided were the Welsh Selectors in dropping him from the Squad.
