NOTES

Gloucester face a stern test to-day for Coventry have lost only one game this season—against Northampton, who also have a similar record. Coventry will be without their regular halves: Preece, if fit, will play in the English Trial, and Stock is down to travel as reserve in the same game. Last season's game was one of those cancelled during the freeze-up, but the previous season's match at Kingsholm will long be remembered, Gloucester winning an exciting struggle with Willie Jones playing a great part in the result. Given a fine day, we should see another close contest. Coventry's record to date: Won 14, Drawn 0, Lost 1, Points 248, agst. 90.

The "United" play the North Gloucestershire Combination selected side, and the two teams as chosen should provide a keen game. The Combination will be out to avenge last season's defeat, and it is hoped that the match will bring out some Gloucester players of the future.

Congratulations to Ken Daniel who is being married over Christmas.
