NOTES

The display last Saturday v. Royal Air Force was most encouraging for the future and the recruits, Dix and Williams, have been retained for to-day. Hudson returns vice Wadley and Hook vice Collier. Dix showed that he is a strong runner and able to snap up chances, and three tries in a first match will give him confidence against the strong sides to be met.

This regular Easter fixture has become very popular and London Welsh can usually be relied on to provide tough opposition.

OUR PLAYERS. No 8.
