NOTES

After the good showing at Bath, Gloucester field an unchanged team to-day. This means that Wilson will play his first game for the First XV at Kingsholm. Without many opportunities, he is reported to have played well last week. He came under notice in the North Gloucestershire Combination games at Kingsholm early in the season and it will be a big test for him to-day.

Newport's record this season is not impressive, but their showing against the Australians rates them a strong combination, particularly forward, so that a fine struggle to-day is in prospect.

The United XV, after their good performance at Worcester did not do so well last week and will want to show improvement to hold their own at Newport, where the reserve strength is always good. They will be strengthened by the return of the Nicholls brothers, Moreland and Crabtree.

The transfer of the usual date of the Varsity match to November 29th causes the cancellation of our game at Oxford next Thursday, but we shall have an opportunity of seeing them when they visit Kingsholm on February 28th.
