NOTES.

The backs took time to settle down on Saturday last against Lydney but once they had done so showed promise of developing into a strong combination. The forwards were well together and should hold their own with the best. Mitchell takes over the scrum-half position and his future will be watched with interest. Jackson who has played some good games for the United and who will add weight and solidarity to the pack comes in for Daniells.

Moseley who have given Gloucester some good games since the war, lost surprisingly at home last week to Old Edwardians, but have two dangerous wings who will want watching to-day.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band

A movement is afoot to revive the Gloucester Rugby Supporters Club, and anyone interested will be welcomed by the promoters at a Meeting at the Bristol Hotel, Bristol Road, Gloucester, on Wednesday Next, September 22nd, 1948, at 7-30 p.m.

The response to Dr. Alcock's appeal last week for the purchase of programmes to help the Gloucester Rugby Memorial Fund was most encouraging, and patrons will know that by continuing their support in this way they are building up a fund which has as its main object the future of the rugby game in Gloucester.
