NOTES.

The form against Bedford and Cardiff was a great improvement over the earlier games and gives encouragement for the prospects in the hard games which lie ahead. Injuries to Crabtree Chamberlayne and Watkins were a handicap at Cardiff, but the great struggle which the team put up pleased the large contingent which travelled from Gloucester. Any doubts about Willie Jones' fitness were soon dispelled.

Our opponents to-day have a reputation for the open game, so may to-day's match provide such an exhibition.

It was strange last Saturday, after his almost unbroken record of appearances for many seasons to see DIGGER MORRIS at a match in anything but football kit. It is good to know that he will follow the team at all games, for he has been of great value, particularly at away games in keeping up the morale of the players. It has been decided as a tribute to his services to accord him the Captain's place on the 1946-47 Honour Board. It will be remembered that Tom Price was the officially appointed Captain that year, but that Roy took over the duties early in the season when Price fell ill.
