NOTES.

Last Saturday was as fine a game as the Leicester and Bath matches, and the display carried three more Gloucester players into the County side to-day. Dunn's selection was overdue, and Burrows and Sutton earned their places by good form in the last two home games. We wish them luck to-day as well as the other six Gloucester players selected.

Llanelly surprised everyone by their fine open rugby and with Gloucester playing up to them, spectators were treated to a splendid exhibition.

Gloucester's game to-day brings in three players who have not previously appeared in the 1st XV. R. G. Talbot is an old Cryptian now demobilised who was spotted in a Scholars game at Kingsholm early in the war. R. Beamish is a strong runner who has scored some good tries for the United. R. Parry is a hard working forward, good in the open. S. H. Davies, Mitchell and Daniells have made frequent appearances for the 1st XV. Dr. Murray's duties prevent him from playing regularly. He played against Oxford recently.
