NOTES.

Bill Hook is likely to be out of the side for a few weeks, his ankle being badly damaged in the County Final.

Our welcome visitors to-day have had a good season, their record to date being played 28, won 14, drawn 3, lost 11; points for 276, against 201. The present holders of the Hospitals' Cup, they have recently played two drawn games with Middlesex Hospital in the semi-final, and finally got through to the final last Tuesday by 9-6. Two years ago Gloucester won at Kingsholm in a snow-storm, but Guys' won well in London last year.

This is the one day of the season when our President has to divide his loyalties, for he first came into prominence while at Guy's, and later gained an International Cap.

The match against Blackheath on Thursday, March 31st will be an Evening game, starting at 5-15 or 5-30 p.m.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band

Each Programme purchased means more funds for the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND.
