Mental maths questions (addition & subtraction)

1) Rob Andrew and Paul Grayson are ex England rugby players. They scored 85 and 84 points each. How many did they score altogether?

2) Before the 2007 world cup rugby tournament, Gavin Hastings was the all time top scorer with 227 points. Jonny Wilkinson had 182 points at the start of this tournament. How many more points did he need to score in order to take over as the top scorer? After the tournament had finished, Jonny Wilkinson had scored 249 points. How many points did he score in the 2007 world cup, and how many points in front of Gavin Hastings did this place him?

3) There are three English players in the top 20 penalty kickers for world cup rugby. They have scored 53, 21 and 20 penalties each. How many have they scored between them?

4) If a team had scored 987 points in rugby world cups and another team are 19 behind. How many have they scored?

5) GRFC scored 957 points in one season and Bath were 401 points behind. How many points have Bath scored?

6) If a GRFC player has scored 137 tries and a Bristol player has scored 93 tries, how many tries have they scored between them?

7) GRFC beat Worcester by 51 - 29. How many points did GRFC win by?

8) South Africa scored 46 points against Georgia in the 2003 world cup. They beat Georgia by 27 points. How many did Georgia score?

9) Namibia scored 18, 13 and 11 in the 1999 world cup. How many did they score altogether?

10) In the 1st round of the 1999 world cup, Wales scored 23, 64 and 31 points. How many did they score in the 1st round?