GLOUCESTER NOTES

Our visitors to-day were the only English Club to win at Kingsholm last season and Gloucester will be out to avenge that defeat. Ian Lumsden, the Scottish International, who was largely responsible for last year's result, is now captain of the Bath team. With several absentees Bath were defeated at home by Stroud last week. Both sides will be strengthened by the return of the County players engaged at Kingsholm last week, and a good game should result.

Bath's record to date is: Played 12, Won 5, Drawn 1, Lost 6, Points 102 to 128.

W. Hook is still on the injured list.

TICKETS FOR INTERNATIONAL MATCHES

Gloucester Rugby Club MEMBERS can now apply for 10/- Stand Tickets for themselves, relatives and friends. The matches are: v. FRANCE, 22nd Feb., 1947. (Closing date for application 8th Jan. 1947) v. SCOTLAND, 15th Mar., 1947. (Closing date for application 29th Jan. 1947)

Applications, accompanied by remittance, should be made to the Hon. Secretary, Mr. A. Hudson, Northgate St., Gloucester, as soon as possible.

Members should note that they are responsible that their tickets do not get into the hands of speculators, as failure to observe this condition may lead to the withdrawal of this privilege from the Club; also that applications are no guarantee that the total number applied for will be allotted. The seats are limited in number, and if the total number available is over-applied for by all the Clubs in the English Rugby Union, our allotment may be curtailed.
