NOTES

After the unwise weather forecast in these notes a fortnight ago, caution might be advisable, but once more we will risk a guess that this week will enable us to see the first of five Saturday games in a row at Kingsholm. At the third attempt to arrange this match against the Royal Air Force, a fine day to-day will be a good start in the final series of matches.

We all deplore S. F. Dangerfield's accident, as the tussle with his clubmates had been eagerly looked forward to by the players. Crabtree also has a recurrence of his earlier injury.

It will be a matter of interest to spectators to have their first view of "Father" Dix's son in the cherry and whites' colours, and the memory of his father will bring him good wishes from everyone.

OUR PLAYERS. No 7.

DANIELL, Ken. Age 21. Weight 10 st. 8 lbs. Height 5 ft. 8 ins. Started rugby at Central School and was captain. Played for Gloucester Boys. Local football during the war for Atlas for three seasons, position outside half. Gained place in first XV last season, and has made such great progress as to earn a County Cap in his first full season.

Has represented the County at athletics as a sprinter, and ran second to McDonald Bailey, the British champion, in an invitation race last summer. Is the third generation of a noted family of track runners and his father, Norman, played for Gloucester for several seasons.
