NOTES

Once again we welcome our Boxing Day opponents of over 50 years standing. Many stirring games have been played in that period and the "Taylors" are noted for their open game. May we have such a game to-day with the weather kinder than last year when rain spoiled all attempts at handling and the score was 6-3 in Gloucester's favour.

Our forwards to-day are at full strength, but D. Evans and S. Davies will be away from Gloucester, and K. Daniell is being married.

Gloucester's terrific form when at full strength this season was well in evidence last Saturday against Coventry. The fixture list for the second half of the season presents a formidable appearance, but on this form it should be faced with confidence.
