NOTES

The visit of Oxford University will be doubly welcomed to-day as the fixture in November was cancelled owing to the change of the Varsity Match to a Saturday. The visitors this year are not the powerful combination of last season, and lost to Cambridge, but these games are always an attraction, and to-day's should be no exception. Oxford's team this term is experimental, no doubt with a view to next season, and their team to-day includes four "blues" amongst whom is D. W. Swarbrick, who has played for England on a number of occasions. Oxford's record to date is Played 22, Won 11, Drawn 1, Lost 10, points for 250, against 171. 8 192

Gloucester's team is the same as that which played against Bath with the exception of J. Phillips for A. Carpenter. Phillips has played for the Army as hooker.

The "United" had another blank week and hope for a good game at Newport to-day against Newport High School Old Boys.
