The President of the Club (A. Alcock, Esq.) write

... name of the Gloucester Rugby Club, I should like to thank the thousands of supporters who have so generously contributed to the "Memorial Fund" by buying programmes so regularly. The sum of £334 has already been banked this season, and it is hoped that after to-day's last home fixture, that last year's total of £350 will be reached. The need for grounds for local clubs is greater than ever, and no better memorial to players who gave their lives in war can be envisaged. The Committee is hopefully anticipating a ready response to-day.

The Trustees of the Fund will gratefully receive any donations, large or small, at any time."
