NOTES.

The intervention of County games and a crop of injuries has disturbed Gloucester's run of successes which existed up to the Bristol match. There is bad news of Ken Daniell, but Sutton and Burrows, although unfit last Saturday, hope to be playing to-day.

Cardiff are still the strongest team in the four countries, and although having had a hard fight at Newport last Saturday (a draw) they have only lost one game this season—against Cambridge. They have topped the 450 mark in points scored, averaging over 15 per match.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band

Patrons are reminded that the object of the GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND is to provide a memorial ground for the use of local players. All proceeds from the sale of these programmes are devoted to this Fund and Mr. A. Hudson, Northgate Street, Gloucester, will gratefully acknowledge donations.

On Wednesday next, March 2nd, the English Universities play their annual International match with Welsh Universities. It is being played this year at Kingsholm, kick-off 3 p.m. The English side will include Whittaker (full back) and Rhodes (forward) of Lancashire, and C. Meredith (hooker) of Gloucestershire. Ken Jones (Welsh International) may be playing for the English Universities, being at present at Loughborough. Many of the players will have appeared at Gloucester for the Universities' Athletic Union team which visits Gloucester annually on the day after Boxing Day in games which have usually produced fine open football.
