NOTES.

Injuries, the weather, and the calls of the County are sadly upsetting the anticipation with which we looked forward to the attractive list of home fixtures of February and March but with the County Final of to-day over, we still have six interesting home games, including a visit on March 26th from Newport.

To-day's side contains eight reserves, but some of them have had plenty of experience with the first XV. A. Wadley and B. Knight make welcome re-appearances after injury. A. Wilkes is a hard-working forward who should thrive on first-class experience. T. N. Williams appeared last season at scrum-half and in the centre. M. Baker is a powerfully-built young player who has recently left school and who played well for the United in the game against Cardiff Athletic.

The Royal Air Force side have been showing good form lately and won at Bedford last week. In spite of the County calls on our team to-day we hope that this game will aid them to key up for their encounter with the Army, who so decisively beat the Navy last week.

Musical Selections by the Cinderford Town Silver Prize Band

The GLOUCESTER RUGBY MEMORIAL FUND is helped every time you purchase one of these programmes. Let it be your good deed at every home match.
